Board of Students' Development

The college's undergrad students' rights, as well as their development courses, are under the control of the Board of Students' Development (BSD). BSD plans and supports a variety of student events to improve corporate life. Through a range of activities, BSD seeks to promote students' academic, physical, and cultural growth in order to enhance their overall personality development and create civilised Indian citizens who are able to compete in the globalised world. Dr. Ranjana Patil, the principal of the Law College, constantly provides guidance and inspiration for us to carry out such projects.

The Board of Students' Development undertakes the following prominent activities:

- 1.Karmaveer Bhaurao Patil 'Earn and Learn Scheme
- 2.Moot Court Competition
- 3.Samarth Bharat Abhiyan
